

“y the w makes a difference”

For Immediate Release:

April 30, 2014

Media Contact:

Allison Beer
Communications Associate
201-345-1893
abeer@ywcabergencounty.org

YWCA Summer Camps Announce Open House Dates

BERGEN COUNTY– YWCA Bergen County is hosting a series of Open Houses for families interested in finding out “Y the W Makes a Difference” in summer camps. The YWCA’s Camp Ma-Kee-Ya, located at Darlington County Park in Mahwah, NJ, will host onsite Open Houses on Saturday May 17 and Saturday June 7, from 12:00 pm - 3:00 pm. Parents and kids can enjoy refreshments and activities, meet camp staff and get answers to all of their questions. The camp is located in the Upper Lake Area of the park at 600 Darlington Avenue.

The YWCA runs four fun and affordable day camps for children ages 3 to 12: Small Fry Camp in Upper Saddle River; Camp Orinda in Dumont; Camp Y-Oak-A in Saddle River; and Camp Ma-Kee-Ya. All YW camps offer American Red Cross Swim lessons, sports, arts and crafts, nature activities, and more. CIT programs for boys and girls ages 13 to 16 are also available. For more information call 201-444-5600, ext. 400 or visit www.ywcabergencounty.org.

About YWCA Bergen County

YWCA Bergen County (www.ywcabergencounty.org) is dedicated to eliminating racism, empowering women, and promoting peace, justice, freedom, and dignity for all. We are the area’s largest provider of child care services, a recognized leader in health and fitness programs, and operator of healingSPACE, the county’s only Sexual Violence Resource Center. Celebrating nearly a century of commitment to our community, today we improve the lives of thousands of women, girls, and their families.

###